About Oliver N. King

Oliver N. King was a native of Jefferson Davis County, Mississippi, and a 1944 graduate of Petal High School in Petal, Mississippi. King was married to Kathryn Diane Horne in 1951 and had three children.

Mr. King believed in helping others. He began his 33-year career with the Jackson Department of Veterans Affairs as a personnel management specialist in 1947. In February of 1949, when in need of a loan for a used car, he went to the Veterans Administration Employees Federal Credit Union and was actually hired, that day, as the credit union's new treasurer. The credit union equipment consisted of one black record book and a small metal cash box. He served as the treasurer from 1949 to 1980, also serving on the credit union's supervisory committee from 1952 to 1954.

King was instrumental in bringing the credit union into the computer age in 1978 and was appointed manager of the credit union on January 1, 1981. He introduced several new products and services—including Christmas Club Accounts, IRAs, and Share Draft (Checking) Accounts—and led the credit union through two data processing conversions before his retirement in 1990.

King was elected to the Magnolia Federal Credit Union board of directors in 1991, was inducted into the Mississippi Credit Union Association Hall of Fame in 2005, and in 2012 he was inducted into the Credit Union House of Leaders in Washington, D.C. He was serving on the credit union board at the time of his death in 2016. He served Magnolia Federal Credit Union from 1949 to 2016.

Mr. King volunteered with several organizations including Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), Mississippi Baptist Hospital, and the National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) where he received numerous awards including "Most Outstanding Volunteer."

Oliver King said he firmly believed that "When I help someone up the hill of life, I too, am closer to the top." Just a short time before his death he made the statement, "I feel I have now reached the top."
